

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1871.

Some hot weather this week.
Go to Treadwell's to get your hardware.

The lumber trade is excellent with Goodnow.

We move—who second?—that Salina establishes a gymnasium.

Ohio butter just received and for sale at R. T. Watson's.

Some people say we are to have a hard winter. Is it so?

No one keeps better grapes than Thacker. Numberless tests convince us of this.

W. S. Wells is adding improvements to his tobacco store.

Choice brands of flour always on hand and for sale at R. T. Watson's.

The court house yard has a new gate, nicely painted.

A neat, new railing surrounds the piazza in front of the American House.

Salina cattle men who have lately made trips to Chicago report the cattle market there "awful blue."

If you are anxious to be furnished "through-out" in the clothing line, don't fail to call at the Salina Clothing Store and talk with Heller.

Mr. C. B. Maedel, who accidentally shot himself a short time since, is improving very fast, and will soon be able to resume business.

Corn is retelling in our stores at thirty-five and forty cents per bushel. The crop has yielded well.

Interview Heller and have him "show up" to you how cheap he can sell to folks clothing of the finest texture and great durability.

Buffalo are grazing south of us, within twenty-five miles of Salina, so they say. Let's "shut up shop," and have a grand hunt.

A secker for information made this inquiry at the Planter's House, the other morning: "Where's the fellow who is the land office? I believe his name is Shenker." Such is fame.

We are pained to hear that Miss Clara Downer, a daughter of Rev. J. L. Downer, of this city, was thrown from a horse last Monday, and quite seriously injured.

The insurance companies, of which Durham is agent, promptly pay all losses and take special pains to keep up a reputation for strict fidelity to the rights of the policy holder.

The canvass of the county on the railroad bond question, has been very complete and effective, and speaking will continue until the day of election. Evidence is good that the propositions will carry.

Al. Wickham returned last Sunday from his Ohio trip. He looks well satisfied with his journey, and is now ready to pursue the "even tenor of his way" by the banks of the Smoky Hill.

Rev. John Conner, of McPherson county, has been appointed Superintendent of Public Instruction of that county, in the place of Rev. O. Olson, resigned. He was appointed on the 18th of September.

Heller has a lot of heavier suits; also, English melton, and a fine selection of cassimere pants and vests, and a big stock of woollen overcoats, from the cheapest to the best; also fine, double-breasted chinchilla sack coats.

We refer our readers to the correspondence on the outside of this paper on narrow gauge railroads, espied from the Topeka Commonwealth. It gives a pretty good idea of what narrow gauge railroads are.

Radcliffe Brothers, east side of Santa Fe Avenue, keep a fine and extensive stock of hardware, stoves and tin-ware. For accommodating gentlemen, and reasonable prices, we recommend them and their hope for public favor.

A stock of dry goods &c. is to be put in the old Hamlin & Woolley stand, by a gentleman from Topeka. We were mistaken about the furniture store that we announced was to be opened there.

Judge O. P. Hamilton is doing a fine business in haling hay. Load after load passes our office each day to the depot. The hay is being put up in the vicinity of J. N. Deitz's windmill, two miles south of the city. It is being sent west on a Government contract.

Mr. Wm. R. Gels, of the banking firm of John Gels & Co., is about to build an elegant and costly residence upon his land east of the river. It will be far the best residence in Western Kansas. We will, as soon as we can get it, give the plan and arrangement to our readers.

Messrs. Woolley and Prescott sold Council Grove, last Monday, on business connected with the Holden road. They were informed that Council Grove was wide-awake over her Salina connections, and proposed to vote solid for the bonds. The bonds will carry by a good majority in Morris county.

All along the Kansas Pacific Railroad, and along the projected routes of the Kansas Central Railroad, the Republican, Salina and Arkansas Valley Railroad, and the Kansas and Northwestern Railroad, there are cheap lands for sale, as also lots in the future great railroad center of the west, Salina.

At the meeting of the Commissioners, last Monday, the voting precinct on Gypsum creek, known as "Prescott's," was abolished. A new voting place was made at Mr. Spill's. Willerson's, a new one at the school house near Mr. Eastman's, both on Gypsum creek; and a new one at Dan'l. Hopkins, on the Smoky Hill river, south of Salina.

In view of the probable retirement of Secretary Fish from the state department, New Yorkers are moving to effect the appointment of Dr. White, of Cornell University. Notwithstanding all the commotion in official circles, E. T. Watson is busily engaged, night and day, in selling of the choicest, cheapest, and most popular groceries, at his store in Salina.

Dyer & Good are doing an extensive livery business, at their stable on Santa Fe. They have one of the most commodious buildings in the West. They are prepared to furnish carriages with good teams and drivers to the traveling public, at very moderate rates. They make a practice to give all horses stabled with them careful grooming and attention. Patronize them.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. R. T. Wild, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, who has settled at Brookville in this county and opened out a stock of dry goods, clothing, and general furnishing goods at that town. Mr. Wild seems to possess the necessary qualities that make up the wide-awake, enterprising western man, and we believe that he will succeed in an eminent degree.

Capt. Sherrin proposes to close out his dry goods and clothing store in Salina, and to remove to Chicago. The Captain has been rearranging his capacious store to meet the requirements of his "new superstore." The Captain's store is a popular place to trade, and the proprietor enjoys the esteem and respect of the whole community.

Mr. Carson, an engineer of the Florida, Memphis & Columbia River Railroad, was in town the other day. He is making the preliminary survey through this section of the country, and talks quite favorably upon the practicability of running his road through to Salina. He will report favorably for Salina to his company, and may induce them to come this way. Who knows but that we may gain another important connection?

Mr. A. Siegel, of New York City, the first of next week, will open out a selected stock of clothing, hats, caps, piece goods, and every thing in the dry goods line, at the room formerly occupied by A. M. Roche & Co., and then move to the street, as he wished, and is compelled to occupy this building for the present. He desires all the citizens of this county to call and examine his choice stock of goods.

Col. Clendinning, Hon. R. H. Bishop and Dr. Groger have returned from their Baltimore trip. They looked "mighty sleepy." It is very natural to be boy-like when away from home. All the difference between the Salina-Baltimore delegation and the little band of Spaniards who stumbled about in the forests of Florida in search of the famous fount of rejuvenescence is, that "our boys" found it and the other fellows found it not. Honestly, a "good time" was depicted on the countenances of the Salina wanderers when they returned.

What say the fun-loving young "sports" to organizing a theatrical company for the winter's amusement? There is home talent sufficient, if a public spirited few would make it their business to drive it out. There's Fick's band, there is Durham, and the brass band to furnish the music, and a host of comedians and tragedians, (if not "to the stage born,") who would furnish good entertainment. The proceeds, over and above expenses, might be devoted to the agricultural society, if no more worthy object should demand assistance.

Mr. James Garvin will hold an auction sale at his farm on the Saline river, twelve miles north-west of Salina, next Monday week, at two o'clock P. M. He will sell one work horse, three brood mares and sucking colts, four milch cows, three yearlings, three spring calves, three hogs, one two-horse wagon, one set of harness, one cook stove, household furniture, and a lot of corn. Ninety days time will be given, if approved security is given. His stock is in good condition, and some of it is very choice. Here is a grand chance for a good investment.

Considerable discussion has been going on in this county as to whether, under the late law regulating the election of county commissioners, these officers are to be elected by the electors of the district in which they reside, or by all the electors of the county. Attorney General Williams, in answer to a letter of inquiry upon this subject, says:

"The question you ask me in your letter of the 7th inst. has been submitted to me some time ago by the officers of this (Shawnee) county, and I gave it my opinion then, as I do now, that each commissioner shall be elected by the electors of his own district only."

It may not be known to many of our readers that Salina once, during the rebellion, was invested by a band of rebels. They entered the town at the break of day, and helped themselves generally to what they could find valuable. Many of the farmers about town lost very valuable horses. Among the sufferers were James Muir, R. H. Bishop, O. P. Hamilton, and H. L. Jones, all of whom had horses taken from them. Let H. L. Jones, Col. Phillips, H. R. Bishop, O. P. Hamilton, and some other pioneers get together and put on foot yearly pioneer festivals. Let them, also, recount to us after-coming the trials, the dangers, the experiences of the days of yore. When Salina is a city of great importance, as she is bound to be if the railroad project carry, "the fathers" must occupy as important a place in her history as the name of Laclede in St. Louis. If not, why not?

RAILROAD MEETINGS.—The following appointments for speaking on the question of voting bonds in aid of railroads, have been made by the committee on "the canvass": Blair's school house, Wednesday eve., Oct. 11th, J. H. Prescott, J. G. Mohler, J. C. Terry, E. C. Dyer, O. P. Hamilton, Wm. Bishop, J. G. Mohler.

Barber's school house, Thursday eve., Oct. 12th, W. Ober, J. G. Mohler, J. C. Terry, J. G. Spiller, M. D. Sampson, I. F. Clark, Eastman's school house, Friday eve., Oct. 13th, J. H. Prescott, J. G. Mohler, F. A. Wildman, M. D. Sampson, Geo. C. Lockwood, F. Kingman, H. B. Merrell.

Salina, Saturday eve., Oct. 14th, Day's school house, Monday eve., Oct. 16th, Wm. Bishop, A. M. Roche, J. G. Mohler, M. D. Sampson, F. A. Wildman, E. R. Switzer, H. Logan, James Chace.

Solomon, Tuesday eve., Oct. 17th, I. F. Clark, J. G. Spiller, M. D. Sampson, J. G. Mohler, John Foster, A. P. Collins, J. G. Slover.

Malby's school house, Wednesday eve., Oct. 18th, J. H. Prescott, E. J. Hanna, A. M. Roche, J. G. Mohler, M. D. Sampson, John Foster, Joel Malby, T. D. Wickham.

McPherson County Items.—A meeting of the residents of Turkey creek township was held at Lake view, on Saturday last, pursuant to notice to that effect, and delegates were nominated to attend a Republican mass convention at the county seat of McPherson county, held for the purpose of selecting county officers for the coming year.

The electors turned out in force. Mr. Geary was called to the chair, and in a neat speech, explained the object of the meeting. In the course of which he remarked that, owing to the rapid and extensive settlement of the south part of this county, it was necessary for the settlers to bestir themselves, take an interest in this election, and pick out men of good sound sense and judgment to represent them. Several other gentlemen addressed the meeting, after which Messrs. T. Woodside, H. J. Woodside, John E. Wright, W. Young, P. T. Harris, and V. Wallace were selected delegates to attend the mass convention at Lindsburg, with instructions to nominate the following gentlemen for office: L. C. Almond, for representative; Jas. Geary, for sheriff; Dr. S. S. Gregg, for coroner; John E. Wright, for county clerk; W. Young, for county attorney; —Linbeck, superintendent of public instruction, and H. Wright, for county surveyor. After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the meeting (which is good evidence of the rapid progress of this section) separated.

Our enterprising townsmen, Mr. Geary, has a number of men employed erecting an addition to his store on Main Street, also a private residence and stables. From the plans, we think the residence will be very handsome, and quite an ornament to the town.

Prairie fires have been raging in every direction the last few days, and owing to the prevailing high winds, have been very destructive to the cattle ranges. Owing to the fire and the scarcity of water in other sections of the country, there has been considerable crowding along the rail.

Older vinegar, warranted pure and good, (from a factory in Ohio), and for sale by the gallon or barrel at R. T. Watson.
